WORKING CAPITAL SOLUTIONS

Spotlight On: Purchase Order & Supply Chain Financing

When servicing an unexpected large order or dealing with an influx of new customers, purchase order financing could be the option you've been looking for. Regardless of what business you are in - this may be the cash-flow solution you need.

If your company has a good credit rating and you're looking for a way to improve cash flow to service new orders, you may also want to investigate supply chain financing. A built-in requirement for insurance can make this solution challenging if your credit is not great. If you've been turned down for loans or new credit recently, purchase order financing may be a better fit... (Read More...)

Protect yourself from liability and loss by securing your shareholder's loan(s).

If you've invested in your business and something happens to trigger a business failure or a business bankruptcy are you not entitled to the same protection that your bank would want under a general security agreement?

In the event of a financial crisis you can protect yourself by taking steps to secure the shareholder's loan you've given to your business... (Read More)
